2018 JLCNB SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

The following items must be submitted or it will not be considered. You may choose video submission or written essay. You do not need to complete both. A brief 50 word introductory paragraph to the video may be submitted as well but is not required.

1. A :90-3:00 video shared via YouTube link that describes your volunteer experience, its impact on you and the community and what it means to you to volunteer OR a typed essay that describes (in approx. 500 words) your volunteer experience, its impact on you and the community and what it means to you to volunteer. The written essay or video should communicate and reflect what work was performed, where, your role in it, how your volunteer efforts have impacted the community, how they have impacted or influenced you and what it means to you to volunteer. The video submission can be any style of video you choose and include interviews, footage of you volunteering, photos, scripting, voiceover, music or whatever creative methods you feel will communicate your story. The written essay can also include photos or photo copies of newspaper or magazine articles about you or your work. Do not send original hard copy photos or newspaper clippings. JLCNB will not return application materials.

1. Completed application page (above) and:
2. A page listing other relevant volunteer experience from 9th grade to present. Please list the organization, brief description of responsibilities, dates of service and the approximate total hours volunteered. Please include a reference person for each organization.
3. A page listing your extracurricular activities, school awards and high school work experience if applicable.
4. A copy of your High School transcript.
5. A copy of your college acceptance letter, if available.
